

EMPLOYEES ENJOY BANQUET SPREAD BY MRS. S. DAUBE

Spirit of Fellowship Prevails Among 150 Guests at the Entertainment Given Last Evening.

With 150 guests seated around the banquet table, Mrs. Sam Daube was hostess to the employees of the Westheimer and Daube company last night.

Two of the oldest employees of the company were unable to be present but sent their regrets to Mrs. Daube. One of them, Thomas Sloane, was an attendant at the first banquet given more than a score of years ago by Mrs. Daube.

A spirit of fellowship and cheer prevailed and short talks were made by a number of the guests. Thomas Roland acted as toastmaster and those who were called on to make short talks were L. H. Love, Frank Adams, S. F. Whitman, Mrs. Marie Bishop, Miss Anne Griffin and Leon Kahn.

Started With Dozen Guests When Mrs. Daube gave her first informal banquet to the store employees more than a score of years ago, there were a dozen guests at the table, it was stated. Each year the number has grown until the greatest number attending were present Tuesday night. This is Mrs. Daube's method of showing her appreciation for the friendship of those employed at the big department store.

Regret was expressed that more of the employees of former days could not be present for the annual gathering. H. R. Gibson, another of the older employees was unable to be present Tuesday night, but who sent his regrets.
